Conference Information

Greetings from the (Outgoing) President of the International Association for Relationship Research

I am honoured and delighted to welcome you to the conference of the International Association for Relationship Research (IARR). This conference promises to be an exciting experience. The location is fabulous and the program looks truly inspiring. The number of conference registrations has exceeded even our most optimistic expectations. The interest and enthusiasm that have been brewing ever since this conference was announced virtually guarantee that this event will be a wonderful success. The Crete conference represents the hard work of many people, but I especially want to thank John Caughlin (Program Chair) and Kostas Kafetsios (Local Arrangement Chair). They have worked tirelessly to ensure that this conference will be outstanding academically, intellectually, and socially. Thanks also to Stacey Nairn, Sophia Jowett, and Evangelos Karademas for their efforts in organizing the conference book exhibit/auction. I also am grateful to Terri Orbuch, past president of IARR and Chris Agnew, secretary-treasurer, for their tremendous dedication to this organization, including their many contributions to the planning of this conference. I would also like to extend gratitude to all of the board members for their commitment and service over this past year. A conference year makes for a busy year on the board and I was extremely fortunate to work with a group of people who gave so unselfishly of their time and expertise. It was an honour and a privilege to work with you.

The birthplace of the Olympics seems a very fitting venue to hand over the torch to our incoming President, Sandra Petronio. I have great confidence that the organization will continue to thrive and grow under her leadership. We now have over 700 members, a successful Handbook series, a vibrant organization newsletter (PRN), and our journals (PR and JSPR) are bursting at the seams with submissions. IARR members receive funding for scientific research, publish their scholarship in diverse venues, are cited widely by the media, teach valuable courses and workshops, and consult and counsel in various settings. We are in excellent health as an organization and the future looks bright.

Welcome to the 2006 IARR conference. Let's celebrate!

Beverley Fehr

Brief Greetings from the Vice President (and Incoming President) of IARR

As in most cases, the President rightfully wishes to acknowledge all of the many efforts by association members who have tirelessly given their time and energy to make a conference successful. Beverley has done that beautifully. However, the one person still in need of recognition is President Beverley Fehr. As members, you should know that her commitment to IARR is wide and deep. As President, she has given her all in every way, and we are grateful for her leadership. President Fehr has carefully weighed the issues of the last year, followed-up on the many requests, and offered her thoughtful judgment. Working with her is a privilege and an opportunity to learn. We have been in good hands, and she has made the transition into the presidency an easy one for me. Thank you, Beverley, for your expert guidance.

There is little doubt this will be an exceptional conference, thanks to all of those who made it possible. I hope that your commitment to each other as colleagues and to this great association is renewed in Crete!

Sandra Petronio

To the many volunteers who made this conference possible:
THANK YOU!

Book Exhibit/Silent Auction:

The Book Exhibit and Silent Auction is always a highlight of relationships conferences, and this year will be no exception. Publishers have donated many of the latest and most exciting volumes pertaining to close relationships. Don't miss out!

You can find the Book Exhibit in the 1st Floor Cafeteria at the university. It will be open Friday from 10:30am-2:00pm, Saturday from 10:30am-2:30pm, and Sunday from 9:30am-1:00pm. During this time, we encourage you to browse the book exhibit and participate in the silent auction by bidding on publications that interest you.

If you place a bid, check back after 1:00pm on Sunday to see if your bid was the highest! Books will be available for purchase to the winning bidders from 1:00-3:45pm. All proceeds from the silent auction will support the conference. Even if your bid was unsuccessful, the majority of the books on exhibit can be ordered at a conference discounted price.
