Descriptions and Directions

Note that a Google map of these various locations is included in your registration material. If you misplace this map, ask for an extra one at the registration desk or refer to the small map included at the end of this description.

Thursday, July 12

5:00-7:00 pm

Opening Receptions

Locations: Berghoff Restaurant and Buddy Guy's Legends

Two exciting venues have been scheduled for opening receptions. Students will attend a reception at Buddy Guy's Legends, Chicago's premier blues club with Cajun soul food, located at 700 S. Wabash Street. Not only will students have the opportunity to meet each other and listen to live music, but they will also be introduced to the current and incoming IARR board members, the journal editors, and others. Regular members will attend a reception at the Berghoff Restaurant (17 W. Adams), considered to be a Chicago institution. Both venues are a short walking distance from the two conference hotels. Registration packets will contain a ticket to the appropriate venue. Please bring your ticket, wear your name badge, and bring identification of age if you want an alcoholic beverage.

Directions from the Palmer House: Buddy Guy's Legends is 6/10 of a mile from the Palmer House. Take the Wabash Street exit, turn right, and walk 6/10 of a mile south. It is on the corner of Wabash and Balbo Avenue. The Berghoff Restaurant is 2/10 of a mile from the Palmer House. Take the State Street exit, and turn left (south) on State Street and go ½ block, and then turn west (right) on Adams Street and you will see the Berghoff Restaurant (on left). Anyone who would like to walk from the Palmer House in a group and be guided by a local volunteer, please be at the street level/Wabash exit at 4:40 (for those going to Buddy Guy's) and at the street level/State Street exit at 4:45 (for those going to the Berghoff).

9:30 pm

Informal Social Gathering

Location: Palmer House Potter's Lounge and Lockwood Bar

If you would like to continue to gather with IARR members after the evening's keynote address, consider joining fellow attendees at the Palmer House lobby or in one of the Palmer House bars (Potter's lounge and Lockwood Bar).

Friday, July 13

11:30- 12:30

Box Lunch Picnic

Pickup: Lower level of DePaul Center, 1 E. Jackson Blvd

There are many nearby locations where you can eat your box lunch, including Millennium Park and Pritzker Park. Millennium Park is located toward the Lake Michigan between Randolph and Monroe Street. Simply walk east to Michigan Avenue, and then walk north. Pritzker Park is at 301 S. State Street, near Jackson Blvd, just to the north of the Harold Washington Library. PR Editors and Editorial Board should take their lunch to the DePaul Club room on 11th floor of DePaul Center for a meeting. Everyone needs to bring their appropriate lunch ticket and name badge.

4:30 - 7:30 pm

Poster Sessions and Social Time

7:30 - 10:30 pm

More Social Time, Karaoke, Dancing

Location: Rock Bottom Restaurant (1 West Grand Avenue); 2nd level

This event is not to be missed! It begins with three poster sessions, which run back-to-back for an hour each, from 4:30 to 7:30. There will be hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar during the poster sessions. After the poster sessions, Rock Bottom (2nd level) is IARR's for the rest of the evening, so of course we are throwing a party! A disc jockey will provide both music for dancing and songs for Karaoke beginning at 8 pm. Not only do IARR members do great research, but many of them can also sing! Some of our IARR members have promised to perform and we hope that you will too! There are many restaurants in the River North area (near Rock Bottom) if you want to make a reservation for dinner and then return to the party. Another option is to eat in one of the dining areas of Rock Bottom, which includes a beer garden on the third level, and two restaurants on the first level. Or, you can make a dinner out of the hors d'oeuvres that will be provided at the event from approximately 5 to 7 pm. Be sure to wear your name tag and bring identification of age if you want an alcoholic drink.

Directions from the Palmer House: Take the State Street exit, turn right, and head north on State Street for 8/10 of a mile until you reach Grand avenue (you will pass the Chicago River, the House of Blues, and Illinois Street). Rock Bottom is at the intersection of Grand and State, on the west (left) side of State Street.

Anyone who would prefer to walk in a group with a guide, a first guide will take a group at 4 pm and a second guide will take a group at 5 pm. Be at the street level/State Street exit of the Palmer House at one of those times. In addition, another guide at 4 p.m. will assist anyone who does not want to walk and prefers to take the Red Line subway ($2.25 one way) which stops in front of Rock Bottom. A cab is also an option for anyone who does not want to walk or take the subway (estimated cost: $8-$10). If you need assistance returning, please ask one of the volunteers or conference organizers at the event.

Saturday, July 14

11:30 – 12:45 Buffet Lunch at the DePaul Cafeteria
or 12:45 – 2:00 Location: Cafeteria on 11th floor of DePaul Center, 1 E. Jackson Blvd.

The cafeteria is reserved for IARR and will be serving food to our group from 11:30 until 2:00. Note that there are two sessions, 11:30-12:45 and 12:45-2:00, during the designated lunch time. Select the lunch time that precedes or follows the session that you would like to attend. Bring your lunch ticket and name badge.

5:15 – 6:30 pm IARR Business Meeting
Location: Daley, Lower Level, Rm.105

A business meeting as a social event? In our organization, yes! Attending the meeting is a good way to meet people in the organization and become involved. Learn about the past, present, and future of IARR.

6:30 pm Open Dinner

Saturday evening, after the business meeting, is a time to go out with old and new friends to a local restaurant. The concierge at the hotel can make a recommendation, or you can use www.yelp.com to input your location and preferences to read peer reviews of local restaurants. OpenTable.com also provides an easy way to make reservations, recommended for many places, and you can even download this application to your smart phone. After dinner, consider returning to Potter's Lounge and Lockwood Bar at the Palmer House to gather with others during social time or mingle with new scholars at the New Scholars Event.

8:30-10:30 pm New Scholars Gathering
Location: Pazzo's Cucina Italiana, Lower Level
Directly across the street from the Daley Building at 23 E. Jackson

All students and pre-tenure members are invited to this social hour for emerging scholars. Not only is this a great networking opportunity, it will be a lot of fun! When you walk into Pazzo's, turn right in front of the bar and go downstairs to find a large meeting space with a bar that is specifically reserved for IARR. If you get hungry, Pazzo's has great food options.

8:30 – 10:30 pm (Not New Scholars) Social Gathering
Location: Palmer House's Potter's Lounge and Lockwood Bar

Anyone not attending the New Scholars Gathering, please feel free to meet after dinner at the bars in the Palmer House.

Sunday, July 15

12:30 – 2:30 p.m. Explore and Have Fun!

Some of you may want to take a nap. For those who are wide awake, Chicago is great to explore, with many popular places within walking distance of the conference sites. Grab a bite to eat at one of the many nearby restaurants or at the Taste of Chicago (the world's largest food festival) in Grant Park, just to the east of the Palmer House (south of Millennium Park). You may also consider any of the following: shop on the famous Magnificent Mile district, visit the Art Institute, take your photo at Cloud Gate (affectionately known as the "Bean") in Millennium Park, take the elevator up to the Skydeck in the Willis Tower (formerly Sears Tower) or the John Hancock Observatory (where you can also grab some food and a cocktail on the 95th floor), go to Navy Pier, take the Chicago River & Lake Architecture Tour (it's best to reserve in advance), or go to the Museum Campus (which includes the Shedd Aquarium, the Field Museum, and the Adler Planetarium). For the sports fans, the Chicago Cubs are playing at Wrigley field. Just don't forget to return to the conference!

6:30—Midnight Evening Soirée at the Chicago Cultural Center
Hors D'Oeuvres, Awards, and Dance

Location: 78 E. Washington St. (corner of Washington St. & Michigan Avenue)

Come join us at the beautiful and historical Chicago Cultural Center for IARR's legendary awards ceremony and reception. The evening will include a meal's worth of hors d'oeuvres, an open bar, and the Awards Ceremony followed by music and dancing. Plan to come celebrate the award winners and stay to socialize and dance. IARR members are not only known for their scholarship (and singing), but also for their dance moves. This will be a memorable event – and it won't be the same without you! Be sure to wear your name badge, bring your ticket to the event, and bring identification of age if you want an alcoholic beverage.

Directions from the Palmer House: Exit at the Monroe Street Exit, and head east (towards Millennium park) to Michigan Avenue. Turn north (left) on Michigan Avenue and walk 2 blocks until you see Washington Avenue. The Cultural Center is the large building on the corner of Washington and Michigan. Enter the doors on Washington Street. Anyone who would like to walk from the Palmer House in a group with a guide should be at the street level/Monroe Street exit at 6:15 p.m. If you need assistance returning, please ask one of the volunteers or conference organizers while at the event.

Directions from the Blackstone Hotel for the above Events:

Those in Blackstone are in a prime location, on Michigan Avenue across from Grant Park. However, you will have further to walk for the sessions and the events, with the exception of those attending Buddy Guy's Legends. Buddy Guy's is 1/10th of a mile away. Go south on S. Michigan Avenue, and turn right on E. Balbo Street, and just walk up to Wabash. For those walking from Blackstone to the Berghoff Restaurant, it is 7/10 of a mile. You could take E. Balbo Avenue west to State Street and then walk north on State until you reach West Adams, and then turn west (left) on Adams. Alternatively, walk north on Michigan Avenue until you come to

2013 Mini-Conference
Dyadic Stress and Coping in Close Relationships
June 19-21, 2013

This intensive two-day conference will bring together international experts on dyadic coping with other relationship researchers and early career professionals new to the area. The meeting will emphasize current findings in the study of couples' coping processes, the methodologies to examine dyadic coping and the application of this research to programmatic interventions with couples. The program will include keynote addresses, panels, roundtables and an interactive poster session. All sessions will include extended discussion between the speakers and conference participants.

Over the two-day meeting attendees will:

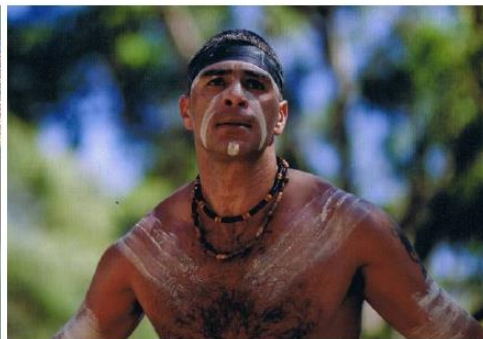

-  Learn about theoretical frameworks and current research findings in the study of dyadic coping among diverse types of couples in close relationships
-  Become familiar with cutting-edge methodologies used to examine dyadic coping, including multi-level analyses, longitudinal data, and the use of biomarkers
-  Learn how to translate the research findings into promising innovative interventions with couples who are coping with severe and chronic stresses
-  Interact with other researchers in the area to create new research collaborations

Pre-Conference Workshop for Early Career Professionals: Dyadic Coping 101

This one-day preconference workshop will bring together early career professionals with several experts in the field to introduce them to theory, research and methods in the area of dyadic coping. Early career professionals are defined as advanced graduate students, post-doctoral fellows, and scholars with no more than three years from their doctoral degree. Registration will be limited to facilitate an interactive and participatory format. It is hoped that the workshop will facilitate collaborative research among early career professionals with senior scholars and create a resource network among early career professionals in the area of dyadic coping.

Conference Venue: University of Louisville, Louisville, Kentucky, USA

A website will be operational by August 1, 2012, with a link on the IARR website. For more information contact Anita Barbee, Ph.D., anita.barbee@louisville.edu, or Karen Kayser, PhD, karen.kayser@louisville.edu or Tracey Revenson, PhD, TRevenson@gc.cuny.edu

2014 INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR RELATIONSHIP RESEARCH CONFERENCE

SAVE THE DATE

WHEN: 10-13 JULY 2014

WHERE: MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA

Australia is honoured to be the host of the 2014 IARR Conference. The Australian relationships research community welcomes friends and colleagues from around the globe to join us in disseminating and celebrating the innovative and exciting relationship research of the IARR.

The conference will take place in Melbourne. An international destination of 19th century grandeur, and 21st century innovation, it is a city renowned for its vibrant art and cultural life, leading events and festivals, sport and racing, high fashion, cafés and fine dining, and is an hour away from the world renowned wineries and pristine beaches of the Mornington Peninsula, the Yarra Valley and the Great Ocean Road.

MELBOURNE CONVENTION AND EXHIBITION CENTRE

Superbly located right in the heart of the city is Melbourne's newest destination for fashion, food and lifestyle experiences – South Wharf. It's certainly a destination worth exploring, offering a unique and fresh perspective on what is already one of the world's most dynamic cities.

The centrepiece of South Wharf is the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre – Australia's largest and most versatile convention and exhibition facility, located along the Yarra River and within a short distance of seven major convention hotels.

As the first and only 'Six Star Green Star' environmentally rated convention centre in the world, the multi-award winning venue represents global leadership in innovation and sustainability and continues to raise standards to new heights in technology, imaginative catering and service options.

The development complements the existing Southbank precinct which is home to luxurious hotels, the Crown Entertainment Complex, boutique shopping and world-renowned restaurants such as Nobu and Rockpool.
